

Brenna Meade

---

Brenna Meade started working on campus networking for Colorado State University as an undergraduate and graduate student. She then became a Network Engineer for the University of Denver in Denver, Colorado. In 2019 she began working for Arapahoe County Government as a Senior Network Engineer designing, implementing, and supporting county networks. Brenna is currently a Network Systems Analyst for the International Networks team at Indiana University.

